HAPPY NEW YEAR !!!

Praise be to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit for all the favors and blessings of the passed year. We thank God for this New Year and look forward to the great and wonderful revelations He will pour out upon His people in the days ahead.

REMEMBER NOT THE EVENTS OF THE PAST, THE THINGS OF LONG AGO CONSIDER NOT; SEE, I AM DOING SOMETHING NEW! NOW IT SPRINGS FORTH, DO YOU NOT PERCEIVE IT? Isaiah 43:19

A NEW SONG by Derek Prince

The Psalms are full of exhortations to praise God in song. The one here quoted contains a special challenge. He never wants our praise of Him to become old or stale, or to degenerate into ritual and routine. How can we always be ready with a new song?

In Ephesians 5:18-19 Paul shows us the way: "Be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord" (NASB). Praise of the kind that the Lord requires and that Paul describes can come only from a heart supernaturally filled with the Holy Spirit. The infilling of the Holy Spirit is an indispensable prerequisite.

Out of the Spirit's fullness proceed three kinds of praise: psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Psalms are those already recorded for us in the inspired words of Scripture. In the category of hymns belong the grand, familiar songs of the Church that express our common faith. But spiritual songs are not composed in advance. They are given spontaneously by the Holy Spirit. They are truly "new" songs.

Each time we enter God's presence in worship and catch a glimpse of His grace or glory that we have never seen before, the Holy Spirit gives us a new song appropriate to the new revelation. It may be in our own language or one given by the Spirit. In either case, it is a spontaneous response to a fresh revelation of God. Thus our worship always continues to be as fresh as God's unfolding revelation of Himself.

Faith's Response:

Holy Spirit, grant me songs to worship the Lord that are as fresh as His grace.

WHAT IS CHARIS ?

Pope Francis Inaugurates A New INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION
by Virginia King

Catholic Charismatic Renewal (CCR) has been referred to as "a current of grace in the Church and for the Church." Pope Francis has frequently urged all people involved in CCR to work diligently to spread this current of grace to everyone in the Church. "Share with everyone in the Church baptism in the Holy Spirit, praise the Lord without ceasing, walk together with Christians of different Churches and Christian communities in prayer and action for the most needy." (Pope Francis, June 3, 2017)

CHARIS is a new organization that has been formed at the request of Pope Francis to serve Catholic Charismatic Renewal throughout the world for this very purpose. The title, Charis, is an acronym, taking the first letter or letters of these words: Catholic Charismatic Renewal International Service.

At this time, however, we want to focus on CHARIS, because it was officially launched in Rome this year at Petecost. In the past, CCR has been served at the international level by two separate organizations: ICCRS (International Catholic Charismatic Renewal Services) and by CFCCCCF (Catholic Fraternity of Charismatic Covenant Communities and Fellowships). Both of these organizations had headquarters in the Vatican.

Pope Francis recognized the value of these two organizations, but desired to bring them together into a single structure. He asked ICCRS and CFCCCCF to work together to form this new structure to replace their two separate organizations. The result is CHARIS. CHARIS has a long list of objectives listed in their statutes, but the ones that I most frequently hear mentioned are: promoting and strengthening unity within the CCR, being an instrument to promote ecumenical unity in the body of Christ, and promoting service to the poor.

CHARIS has representatives from all continents to guide their service. Representing the English and French speaking people of North America and the Caribbean is a dear friend of WWCCR, Bishop Peter Smith from the Archdiocese of Portland. Representing the Spanish speaking people of the same region is Andres Arango, whom some in our area also know well from his participation in ICCRS Leadership Training Course that was held here in 2016.

I encourage you to look at the CHARIS website to get more information. <https://www.charis.international/en/home/> Above all, I urge you to pray for CHARIS and for its leadership and its fruitfulness in fulfilling its mission. Come Holy Spirit

May I, With Each Passing Day...

by Dorothy Louise Thomas

*I thank Thee first for all the gifts
The old year brought to me---
The dancing spring, a yellow rose,
A few days by the sea;*

*Glad gypsy hours in autumn woods,
And restful nights of snow,
And many, many stirring bouts
With clean, blue winds that blow!*

*I would keep my New Year free
From carelessness and folly,
From little words that prick and sting,
From sinful melancholy;*

*Free from idle discontent
Which turns the brightest day
Into a stretch of sullen hours
Beneath a sky of gray.*

*Let me keep it clean as grass
Twinkling after rain;
Happy as the bird that cleaves
A morning sky in twain.*

*I would learn the tolerance
Of the kindly sun
That shines alike on rich and poor,
And heartens everyone.*

*Give to me the trustfulness
Of the roadside flower,
That neither fears the darkening sky
Nor yet the sudden shower.*

*Strengthen me to do my work
With joy and hardihood
And may I, with each passing day,
Know that life is good!*
